PREFACE

This book is designed to cater to the needs of all the categories of students who are learning English as a second language in the second semester of the first year degree course. For each sub-unit under Units I, II and III, original text has been given which is followed by a vocabulary list with meanings for the hard words in the text. A detailed summary has been presented for each sub unit in such a way that a thorough reading of the summary will enable the learners to answer the MCQ items, short questions, paragraphs and essays. All the grammatical items contain the governing rules and illustrating examples with adequate exercises to assess the mastery level of the students. The last unit focuses on English in the workplace. In this section, besides exhaustive explanations, such essential and the most frequently required examples have been provided that the students will find them very useful in near future. Yes, these examples will enable the students to play their professional role in future efficiently with increased level of confidence and competence. This learning package will prove to be a trustworthy companion to students.
